3. POLICY STATEMENT

Essential Worker ARHSEPP properties provide housing that meets the needs of people living within the community and who are on moderate incomes. They are priced so that tenants can afford basic living costs such as food, clothing, transport, medical care and education. All Applicants must meet the eligibility criteria to apply.

3.1 Eligibility Criteria

To be assessed as eligible for Essential Worker ARHSEPP properties, Applicants must meet the following criteria. Applicants must:

- be employed as a Essential Worker;
- be able to sustain a successful tenancy;
- meet the Income Eligibility and Asset Eligibility criteria set out below;
- be a citizen or have permanent residency in Australia; and
- in general, be 18 years of age or older.

Eligibility Criteria is reviewed annually.

3.2 Income Eligibility

Income Eligibility will be satisfied for an Applicant or Tenant if:

- Applicants or Tenants meet the attached Income Test; and
- Applicants or Tenants can prove that they can afford to pay their rent without falling into housing stress; and
- The majority of the Essential Worker's working hours are spent fulfilling their Essential Worker role; and
- Sufficient documentation is supplied for proof of household income on the request of the Manager.

Consideration may be given to relevant studies being undertaken by the Tenant or Applicant. Income Eligibility is reviewed annually.

3.3 Asset Eligibility

Applicants should not have substantial assets, such as savings, shares or investments — excluding savings towards the purchase of a home. Applicants cannot own property or land that would satisfy their housing need.

Asset Eligibility is reviewed annually.

3.4 Allocation of a Property

A property is allocated based on the following:

- the Applicant has met all the Eligibility Criteria; and
- the Applicant agrees to the proposed lease terms and conditions.

3.5 Waiting List

Prospective tenants can register their interest for upcoming or future vacancies, however there is no waiting list.

3.6 Vacant Properties

Properties will be advertised in appropriate media outlets detailing information about any available Essential Worker ARHSEPP properties and the Eligibility Criteria.

3.7 Tenure

Properties will be offered on a fixed term tenancy. Leases will be reviewed annually to ensure continued eligibility.

3.8 Rent

Rent for Essential Worker ARHSEPP properties will be set at 80% of the market rent. The market rent will be reviewed annually. A notice period of 3 months will be provided for any rental increase.

3.9 Bond

Tenants are required to pay four weeks rent at the subsidised rental rate as a bond at the commencement of tenancy.

3.10 Ongoing Eligibility

To remain eligible for a Essential Worker ARHSEPP property or a rental subsidy, Tenants must continue to meet all relevant Eligibility Criteria.

Existing Essential Worker ARHSEPP tenants are permitted to earn up to 10% above the maximum applicable income limit before they become ineligible. In circumstances where short term arrangements such as secondment roles, inconsistent overtime or penalty rates places a household in excess of the threshold, the manager, at its discretion, may deem it reasonable to discount such income for the purposes of the household's income eligibility assessment.

Tenants are required to supply the requested supporting documents to prove their eligibility:

- 9 to 12-months from the anniversary of their tenancy commencing;
- Whenever there has been a significant change in earnings or change of Gross Household Income (e.g., employment status or significant change in hours worked); and
- When otherwise reasonably requested by the Manager.

Tenants must promptly notify the Manager of any changes in household circumstances that may affect their eligibility or Gross Household Income.

Tenants are required to maintain their obligations under the Residential Tenancy Agreement throughout the tenancy.

3.11 Where an Assessment finds a Tenant no longer Eligible

Where it is found a Tenant is no longer eligible or has failed to demonstrate their continuing eligibility (for example by failing to provide supporting documentation when required), the tenancy may be terminated in accordance with the Residential Tenancies Legislation. The Manager may exercise leniency on a case-by- case basis, allowing a household up to 6 months from their original lease anniversary date, to find alternative accommodation.

3.12 Transfers and Exchange

Transfers to other Essential Worker Affordable Housing properties are not permitted. If a Tenant wishes to move to another Essential Worker Affordable Housing property or Essential Worker ARHSEPP property owned by the Principal, they will need to lodge a new application for that property. Tenants are not permitted to arrange a subsequent tenant to take over their tenancy when they vacate a property. Tenants are not permitted to agree with another tenant to swap properties, including another Essential Worker Affordable Housing tenant or Essential Worker ARHSEPP property.

3.13 Succession of Tenancy

Succession of tenancy is not permitted. If a household member wishes to take over a tenancy or become the named / head tenant they will need to lodge a new application with the Manager - which will be subject to the Eligibility Criteria of a new tenancy.

3.14 Right of Appeal of Eligibility Assessment

If an Applicant or Tenant believes a wrong decision has been made based on a relevant Policy, they should ask the Manager for a formal review of the decision. To do this, the Applicant or Tenant needs to complete an Appeals Form stating why they disagree with the decision.

This Policy is subject to change from time to time.
